

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Wednesday, April 24, 2002

Thursday, April 25, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Medicaid deal: Wait, see

Watchdog says remove Hosemann

Social workers: Kids endangered

Editorials

Cell phones: Personal use adds to state's costs

Parham Bridges: County's neglect cheats the public

Mayors: Mississippi welcomes visitors

Evers papers to be donated to state

Court suspends Warren judge

Medicaid exec's power affirmed

Gov.'s calls to ex-aidé frequent

Statewide gatherings recognize victims

Report: Nissan to add 4,000 workers

Editorials

Medicaid: Truce postpones the inevitable

Yard parking: Override veto, then fix ordinance

Judiciary: Warren judge's plight a policy issue

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Musgrove kept calling aide after she had left

Feud may finally be over

New AMA chief: Keep Medicaid promises

Free speech? Or expensive vote buying?

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Medicaid deal almost complete

Legislative, executive branches agree on Medicaid reprieve

Medicaid agreement finalized

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.

Review shows Musgrove placed numerous calls to former aide

Musgrove, Tuck stage separate events to tout new unity in Medicaid

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Medicare funds face \$22.5M in cuts

Sluggish economy creates increased demand for food stamps, welfare

Meridian Star Meridian Mississippi

Burlington workers focus of job fair

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Musgrove noncommittal on tort reform

Read Our View

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Stateline.org

The Clarksdale Press Register

Be careful in reforming Medicaid

Private prisons get special protection

The Bolivar Commercial

The Greenwood Commonwealth Greenwood, Mississippi

State leaders come to a compromise

Tuck calms fears at Golden Age

Mississippi Business Journal

Magnolia Report

Mississippi state employee cell phones costly to taxpayers

Natchez-Adams County Chamber takes action on tort reform

Dickie Scruggs tells Senator John Edwards, not another nickel from Mississippi

DHS worker: Kids will die without state's help

The New York Times

The Washington Post